Economically Disadvantaged Students (EDS) Data Collection

As a federal requirement, the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction must report test results for the following student subgroups: ethnic origin, students with disabilities, students identified as limited English proficient, and students identified as economically disadvantaged. To report on the economically disadvantaged subgroup, household income information is collected. We ask that EVERY FAMILY complete this form by October 1st. If this information does not apply to you, please check the appropriate box in Section B.

All information is confidential and will only be used for subgroup reporting.

SECTION A:

Read the lines below. If one line describes your family's economic situation, check the one box on the row that best matches your household size and yearly income. Then certify in SECTION B. If none of the rows apply to your family, go straight to SECTION B.
