Image Release Form

In order to create and maintain a dynamic and authentic educational experience, Exploris needs to have your written permission to use the materials described below. Please read and complete this form, and if you agree, sign below.

I irrevocably consent to the use and reproduction by The Exploris School, or anyone authorized by The Exploris School, of any and all photographs, film and/or audio/video recordings that representatives of Exploris have taken of the below name student, for any purpose, and in any medium whatsoever, without further compensation to me. I further consent to and authorize the use by Exploris, or anyone authorized by The Exploris School, of the biographical material in connection with any photographs, film, and/or audio or video recording made of the student named below. The photographs, negatives, film, and audio or video recordings shall be the sole property of The Exploris School.

I understand that my child's work may be considered for publication for school use and promotion. This may include but is not limited to, the school's website and social media pages. Unidentified photos of my child may also be published on school web sites as related to school projects, activities, and marketing/advocacy for the school. My child's first name with last initial may be used with student projects or other school news. I give permission to publish my child's work, unidentified photos, and abbreviated name for school news articles, marketing, and advocacy materials.

I represent that I am the parent/guardian of the student named below and I give my consent on his or her behalf. This release form will be applicable for the entire period in which the below student is enrolled at Exploris unless the parent/guardian of said student communicates in writing otherwise.
