

What is the Youth GoPass Program?

To make it easier for young folks to get to schools or jobs, to parks or plays or to movies or malls, area transit agencies are banding together to allow everyone 18 and younger to ride buses free. And if we end up helping to teach teenagers some independence and cultivating lifelong transit lovers, well, that's OK, too! (Those without passes can ride for half-price. Riders 12 and under already ride free with an adult.)
